To the Director of the Mint

Dear Sir:

Visiting the Mint in this city last Saturday, I brought away with me the Hand book on the Mint, with the two little medals, as souvenirs of my visit. It occurred to me ~~that~~ it would be agreeable to nearly every visitor, if, instead of the little medals, or besides those medals, he could take away with him some one or more coins minted on the date of his visit and marked with date – in very fine figures – say "1/23/90" or "1/23" Let them be sold all the coins above half dollars at an advance of 10 cents above the face value. Below "halves" at an advance of 5 c.

RG104 E-1 Box 161

I would have taken at least ten coins including a half Eagle
Couldn't it be made to pay – or more than pay?
I should say the western silver men would approve of even a little scheme to dispose of their goods.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant
